VOL. V. NO. 10.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE BROMLEY & CO. STABLE.

In the course of his recent inspection of the racehorses located in an about Lexington "Keston" drove out to the farm where the horses belonging to the well-known Chicago firm of Bromley & Co. are located and looked the lot over. Here is his story of the stable as it now is:

"At present the horses are all in the rough, it being Julius Bauer's custom to let up on his horses entirely for about three months, and for exercise they are turned out in these roomy paddocks, and that they do well the splendid condition in which all of the string are in bears ample testimony.

"Julius Bauer, who is not in the best of health, is at present sojourning at West Baden, in Indiana, but in Jerry Goff, his foreman, there is a thoroughly experienced and first-class man in charge.

"The horses will be taken up and exercised under saddle in the course of another ten days, and the intention is to ship them to Morris Park about the middle of March. They are as follows: On Deck 5, Typhoon II., 5, Previous 4, Composer 3, Heliobas 3, Rose O'Lee 3, La Cheviot 3. The 2-year-olds are chestnut colt, by Albert—Hoodoo; brown colt, by Hanover—Flying Witch; bay colt, by Order—Hattie B.; bay colt, by Iroquois—Trade Wind; chestnut colt, by Hanover—Miss Baden; chestnut colt, by Sir Dixon—Mattie Amelia; chestnut colt, by Hanover—Ursuline Nun; chestnut colt, by Fonso—Hannarinda; chestnut colt, by Long Dance—Silverlight; chestnut filly, by Iroquois—Fairy; chestnut filly, by Tea Tray—Miss Longford; brown filly, by Iroquois—Yorkville Belle. There are also a chestnut colt by Order and a chestnut colt by Fonso, the dams of which Mr. Goff could not call to mind.

"Of the older horses in the string, On Deck, which has been under treatment since early in the fall, is now sound and his ailing leg clean and cool and his trainer is hopeful of his standing training. Typhoon II., who has recently been added to the list, is also going sound. Previous, which enjoys being turned out, has put on flesh, and is in hard, rugged condition for a thoroughbred. This horse has wonderful trotting action, bending his knee and flexing his hock in great style.

"Heliobas, which showed high class form in the west, is a lengthy, wiry looking horse, with good bone, and if of as high class last year as we hear tell of, is just the type of colt to make a good racehorse with another year over his head.

"The three-year-old fillies Rose O'Lee and La Cheviot have both furnished and let down, and the stable is rather sweet on them.

"Of the two-year-olds my choice would be for the Hanover—Flying Witch colt and the Albert—Hoodoo colt. The latter is a big framed, powerful colt, with immense bone, and as he is possessed of a great turn of speed it would seem he ought to prove a bit above a commoner. The Hanover—Flying Witch colt, which has come on wonderfully since I last saw him, looks all over a racehorse, nicely balanced and full of quality, and as he also was tried very highly without being overdone, I look for this classy looking colt to be very troublesome in early stake events, as he is one of the sort that will come to hand early.

"Of the fillies the Iroquois—Yorkville Belle filly is as high a class type, combining substance with quality, as I have seen in many a day, and as she is clean limbed and nicely balanced I will be very much disappointed if she does not prove a good one. The Iroquois—Fairy filly is a stout, big quartered, hardy looking sort on rare limbs.

"The Iroquois—Trade Wind colt (brother to Gotham) is on the raking big-framed order, and while he will not come to hand early he can hardly fail to have some class to him. The Hanover—Ursuline Nun colt has improved very much, has fined down and shows much more finish and quality than he did some months ago, and while I like the Flying Witch and Hoodoo colts better, bred as he is, the Ursuline colt is likely to be heard from. There are several others which look useful, but the above are decidedly the pick, and with anything like ordinary luck, the popular yellow and black ought to be prominent in two-year-old stake events.

"Unless some decision has been arrived at within the last few days the stable has no jockey engaged for the coming season.

"It is little wonder that Julius Bauer brings his string out here to winter, as it is in every respect an ideal place for the purpose, as no matter how hard it may freeze the close, heavy herbage on the old turf pastures affords capital going."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

According to the Thoroughbred Record Captain W. H. May's stable for 1899 will be as follows: The older horses which have raced are Joe Clark, Ed Tipton, Ernespie, Primate and Jockey Joe (the latter a three-year-old maiden). The youngsters which were two years old January 1, 1899, are:

Joe Simrall, by Likely—Tillie B. Leedstone, by Likely—Vendome. Fair Test, by Likely—Tuba Rose. Brown colt, by Bersan—Mary Anna. George Alexander, by Likely—Villette. Bay filly, by Likely—Monarchess. Bay filly, by Likely—The Princess. Brown filly, by Likely—Lady Dixon. Bay filly, by Donatello—Alma Davis. Bay filly, by King Cole—Wanda West.

Captain May considers Joe Simrall the best colt he ever owned, he having even shown better than the flying Jinks did at the same age. He worked a quarter in 23, and gave the fast sprinter, Primate, forty-nine pounds and beat him in the mud. Captain May says this colt can take 125 pounds and beat any other two-year-old he has with 100 pounds up.

The full number of the stake entries at Sheepshead Bay, as compared with last year, are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Colonel Jack Chinn took in the races at Oakland last Friday. Nowadays Colonel Jack is more of a politician than turfman and is said to have undertaken to help re-elect Senator Stewart of Nevada.

So far 901 nominations of mares have been made to the Futurity of 1901 and a few more lists are looked for that will bring the total close to the thousand mark.

Harry Shannon broke down so badly in his last race at New Orleans that he had to be destroyed.

Winner—B. g. by Victory—Clio. Post 5 minutes. Start good. All were in a hard driven group at the finish. Klepper was lucky and out to the last ounces. With equal fortune Dave S. would have beaten him. He ran the best race. Loiterer tired in the final furlong and swerved into the heaviest going near the end. He had plenty of speed but was used too much. Henrica ran a good race and was, perhaps, second best.

Overweights—Apple Jack, 2 pounds; Banish, 1. Klepper, place, 4 to 5. Dave S., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Henrica, show, 2 to 1. Loiterer, show, 3 to 5.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Saturday's San Francisco Chronicle says: "Judging by the way Miss Marion won yesterday, it would certainly appear that she should have had an unbeaten record in California. A comparison of the time in her race with the others shows her to be an extremely fast filly. She ran the first half mile yesterday in 49 $\frac{1}{2}$. Miss Marion will be especially prepared for the California Oaks."

James A. Murphy, of Chicago, yesterday sold through the Fasig-Tipton Co., of New York, to Marcus Daly, the chestnut mare, Emily, by Prince Regent—Barbara, trotting record 2:11. She was one of the best racemares in the grand circuit of 1897. She will be used as a broodmare at the Bitter Root Stock Farm, Hamilton, Mont.

A dispatch from Lexington to yesterday's Enquirer says:—"The first thoroughbred foal reported in the Blue Grass region this year was dropped at Mr. August Belmont's Nursery Stud Sunday night. It is a very healthy filly by Henry of Navarre, out of Chantress, by Longfellow."

Bookmakers complain that the public principally confine their speculation to Thorpe and Piggett. The only deduction to be drawn from this statement of fact is that the public has confidence in the honesty of Piggett and Thorpe.—San Francisco Chronicle.

It is not likely that there will be any racing in Montana this year. The Anaconda track may be sold for a new copper smelting plant.

J. Delong, well known as a trainer of race-horses, died yesterday at his home near Niles, Mich.

Winner—Ch. b. by Exile—Athlene. Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard. Agitator came away jauntily in the last furlong, but was put to a drive at the end. Can I See 'Em was catching him at every stride. Saratoga and Sedan raced each other to pieces in front and both tired in the stretch. Sister Alice and McAlbert quit in the final furlong. Ma Angeline ran a fair race. Scratched—Billali, 98. Overweights: Jennie F., 4 pounds; Sister Adele, 3; Midglen, 1 1/2; Agitator, 1. Agitator, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. *First series. Time, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$, 51 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:18.
Winner—Ch. g. by Falsetto—Cinderella.
Start straggling. Won cleverly; mild drive for second place. Ferrier was best. He out-classed the field and is getting to his best form. Fig Leaf ran an honest race. She is not reliable in any company, but has some quality. Petrarch ran a good race. Is in good form, too, and worth tabbing. Likes mud. Dr. Sharp got a fearful ride. Ricardo is an acrobat and was unlucky. He is good. Watch him. Castake's game is sticky going. Tab for that. Schnitz showed his usual speed and quit when his legs pinched him.
Overweights—Kamsin, 5 pounds.
Corrected weights—Castake, 99.
Ferrier, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Fig Leaf, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Petrarch, show, 5 to 1. Ricardo, show, 3 to 5. Castake, show, 1 to 2.

*Racing as Sevoy, but registered as Syrlin. Time, 25, 50 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:04.
Winner—Ch. c. by Islington—Little Flush.
Start poor. Won easily. Flushington beat the gate, liked the going and was never closely approached. Syrlin made up a lot of lost ground under inferior handling. Sokombeo ran an honest race and up to his limit. Henry C. made up considerable ground from a bad beginning. Paul Kruger had no chance from the start. It was a bad lot generally.
Overweights—Sokombeo, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Strathmore—Ella F.
Start fair. Won easily. Survivor was suited by the going and was the best stayer. Obsidian ran a good honest race. He is a fairly good mudhorse and likes a route. Lavator has a great private reputation and is by no means at his best. His race of the day before may have affected him. Rainier ran well but a dry track is more to his liking. Casdale was badly ridden and should have been closer up. Milt Young was outclassed. Ballista is suffering from a sore mouth.
Survivor, place, 1 to 2. Obsidian, place, 1 to 2. Lavator, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. m. by Al Farrow—Lady Lyon.
Start good. Won easily, though hustled a bit at the end to stall off Pat Morrissey. Don't Skip Me is in good condition and was perfectly ridden. Morrissey was off badly and ridden vilely. He is good. So Tab him. Midlight got bad handling and was unlucky on the turns. She is good and should not be dropped from the list of probable winners. Novia ran an honest race and is improving. Zamar II. ran a vile race. He is a coward. Sweet William ran one of his bad races. He is a bad horse.
Scratched—O'Connell, 113.

Winner—B. h. by Prince of Norfolk—Haidee.
Start good. Won handily. Rey del Tierra is in fine form and came away easily in the stretch. Hardly ran a bad race, as compared with her last. Jerry Hunt ran gamely and honestly and finished resolutely. Adolph Spreckels appeared to be only galloping along behind the others. He is a good horse when fit, especially over a distance, and should be kept in mind.
Overweights—Strongoli, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Morello—Sardonyx.
Start good. All three were lapped on and driving hard at the end. Sardonic was best. She is a good, honest filly and needs a stronger ride than she got today. She won on her own courage. Morelito hung a bit at the end. He is good. Tab him so. Red Glenn ran his race. He was overweighted.
Sardonic, place, 1 to 3. Morelito, place, 2 to 5.

SOMETHING GOOD.
